THE WESTCHESTER JEWISH COUNCIL

The Westchester Jewish Council (formerly the Westchester Jewish Conference) is the central communicating, coordinating, convening advisory and resource body for the county's Jewish community, representing over 140 Jewish organizations and serving 150,000 Jews. As Westchester's Jewish community relations organization, the Council unites Westchester Jewry with the State of Israel, fosters communication among Jewish organizations and cultivates and strengthens relations with other ethnic groups, elected officials and the community at large. The Council encourages participation in Jewish life and supports and develops initiatives and programs that meet existing and emerging Jewish communal needs.

The Jewish Community Relations Council of Westchester since 1975

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the 44th Anniversary Gala of the Westchester Jewish Council. We gather here tonight to honor these outstanding leaders in our community, the Singer family - Saul, one of the founders and early presidents of the WJC, and two of his sons, David and Daniel, along with WJC board members, David A. Alpert and Arlene Kleinberg. Tonight's honorees richly deserve our recognition and appreciation, having contributed to the community in innumerable ways through their volunteerism, leadership and prominent philanthropic support for so many organizations. They each have, and continue to work tirelessly to make the Westchester Jewish community a uniquely vibrant model of collaboration and cooperation. Saul, David, Dan, David and Arlene truly embody the philosophy of leading by example. And tonight, we are honored to show them our enormous admiration, respect and gratitude.

We proudly come together tonight to also celebrate the work and accomplishments of the Westchester Jewish Council, and especially to highlight the ever-growing need and importance of that work in the area of security at a time when, sadly, Jews across the globe, and those here at home, are experiencing an alarming epidemic of anti-Semitic violence.

The Westchester Jewish Council takes great pride in serving as the Jewish Community Relations Council of Westchester with a membership of over 140 Jewish organizations, which in turn serve the county's 150,000 Jewish residents. Our mission is to be the central communicating, coordinating, convening, advisory and resource body for the county's Jewish community. Your support tonight, and each year, allows the Council to continue providing and expanding a wide range of services and resources to help strengthen our community. Make sure to join our mailing list and check the community calendar on our website for a wide variety of upcoming events

I would be remiss if I did not express my appreciation to our outstanding professional team - Elliot Forchheimer, Pam Goldstein, Donna Bartell, Lori Kurlander, Margo Lampert, and Helene Schonbrun. We are so fortunate to have such dedicated professionals working tirelessly on behalf of our Westchester Jewish community. I also must thank our board of directors, who represent the best of Westchester, and all of our member organizations, elected officials, community partners, and especially UJA Federation of New York for helping to make Westchester the vibrant and thriving Jewish community we are privileged to call home. On behalf of all of them, I say thank you again for being here to support the Westchester Jewish Council and to honor Saul, David and Dan Singer, David Alpert and Arlene Kleinberg. There is much work yet to be done, but we have much to celebrate as a community. Tonight is a success because of you, so let the celebration begin. Enjoy the evening.

The Jewish Community Relations Council of Westchester since 1975

February 1, 2020
7 Shevat 5780

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Westchester Jewish Council's 44th Anniversary Gala!

We are delighted to celebrate our Westchester community and to pay tribute to our extraordinary honorees: The Singer Family-Saul, David and Dan, David Alpert and Arlene Kleinberg.

How lucky we are as a community to have these exceptional volunteers in our midst. They are leaders in every sense of the word: smart, community-minded, caring, clear-thinking and generous with their time and substance. As long-time Jewish community volunteers and leaders, they have made their mark in Westchester and beyond. They have been involved in their synagogues and as active leaders in numerous civic and philanthropic organizations. They inspired, and continue to inspire, all of us with their devotion and dedication to the Jewish community: Saul, as one of the Council's founding presidents with Dan and David following in his leadership footsteps, David Alpert, a lifelong ardent and generous supporter of Jewish life here in Westchester and Arlene for her years of passionate, dedicated and generous support of a wide range of important Jewish causes and institutions. We are so grateful.

Forty-four years ago our founders decided that Westchester needed a Jewish community relations council to link the disparate communities of southern, central and northern Westchester and to unify Westchester Jewry. They have succeeded beyond their dreams. Today, the Council, with 140 constituent members, serves Westchester's Jews in what is the 8th largest Jewish community in the country. We should express our gratitude to our founders and to our current leadership, embodied in our honorees, who have been true to this vision and who continue to promote the important community-building work of the Council.

We have a wonderful, fun evening planned for you, with entertainment from the comedian, Cory Kahaney, along with music, food and, of course, schmoozing. What can be bad?

Our sincere thanks to the fabulous gala and journal committee members listed in this program and to our very talented and enthusiastic Council staff.

Thank you for joining us tonight and for your ongoing support of the Council. May we always gather in celebration of "those who faithfully occupy themselves with the needs of the community."

Warm regards.

Dear Friends,

UJA-Federation of New York sends warm congratulations to the Westchester Jewish Council and the honorees of your 44th Anniversary Gala: Arlene Kleinberg, the Singer family, and David Alpert. It is our pleasure to join you in celebrating their many accomplishments and commitment to our community. These outstanding leaders have strengthened both the Westchester Jewish Council and our Westchester Jewish community.

A longtime and active supporter of UJA-Federation, Arlene — a dynamic leader and role model — currently serves as our Westchester Campaign Chair. She has held various leadership roles for over 20 years. We are grateful for her generous support and steadfast dedication and service.

The Singer family has a long history of respected leadership in the Westchester UJA-Federation community. Thanks to their enormous generosity, hundreds of Westchester high school students have had an enriching and life-changing summer experience in Israel.

David Alpert, a longtime UJA supporter, demonstrates the importance of unwavering and continued commitment to our Jewish community in Westchester and around the globe.

This evening gives us another opportunity to recognize the critical work the Westchester Jewish Council does in the county, representing more than 140 Jewish organizations and serving the 150,000 Jews who live in Westchester. The Council is the central communicating, convening, and coordinating body for the county's Jewish community. We are proud to support you and partner together to safeguard our Jewish institutions and secure our Jewish future in so many ways.

On behalf of the entire UJA-Federation family, we extend our congratulations to Arlene, the Singer Family, and David and commend the Westchester Jewish Council on its important work.

With warmth and appreciation,

Cindy Golub

Honoree DAVID A. ALPERT

David A. Alpert – has been a devoted leader of the Jewish community for more than 50 years. He is the Senior Vice President of Riverside Memorial Chapel and is actively involved in many philanthropic, civic and humanitarian organizations.

David played a prominent role in the dedication of the Jewish Chaplains' Memorial at Arlington National Cemetery and was the major force behind the Jewish Chaplains' monument tour, "On the Road to Arlington." Through David's efforts this granite memorial inscribed with the names of 14 Jewish Chaplains who died while in military service now stands beside memorials to their Roman Catholic and Protestant brethren on Chaplains Hill at Arlington National Cemetery.

Closer to home, David is a RIETS Fellow of Yeshiva University and serves on the boards of the Wurzsweiler School of Social Work at Yeshiva University, the Westchester Jewish Council, Westchester Jewish Community Services, the United Hebrew Home of New Rochelle and the Advisory Board of the New York Board of Rabbis. David is a past member of the Board of Governors of B'nai B'rith International, Past Chairman of the Holocaust and Human Rights Education Center of Westchester, Past President of the Free Synagogue of Westchester and a member of Congregation Emanu-El. David is a former Board Member of the UAHC Eisner Camp Commission, New York Federation of Reform Synagogues and Bar-Ilan University in Israel. He has also served as a Board Member of The YM-YWHA of Lower Westchester, the Naylor Dana Institute of the American Health Foundation and was Vice-Chairman of Parkway Hospital and Mt. Vernon Hospital. He headed the UJA-Federation Jewish Funeral Directors and Allied Trades Division and was a member of the Westchester Cabinet. Additionally, he served on the Board of The International Synagogue at JFK International Airport.

David is Vice-Chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee. He was Treasurer of the State Democratic Party for 18 years and past Chairman of the Westchester County Democratic Committee.

He was appointed by Speaker of the New York Assembly Stanley Fink to the New York State Business Council. He served as the first Chairman of the Mount Vernon Cable Television Board.

David and his wife, Leslie, live in Mount Vernon and have three children and three grandchildren. He is very grateful to Westchester Jewish Council for honoring him, along with the other honorees, this evening.

Honoree ARLENE KLEINBERG

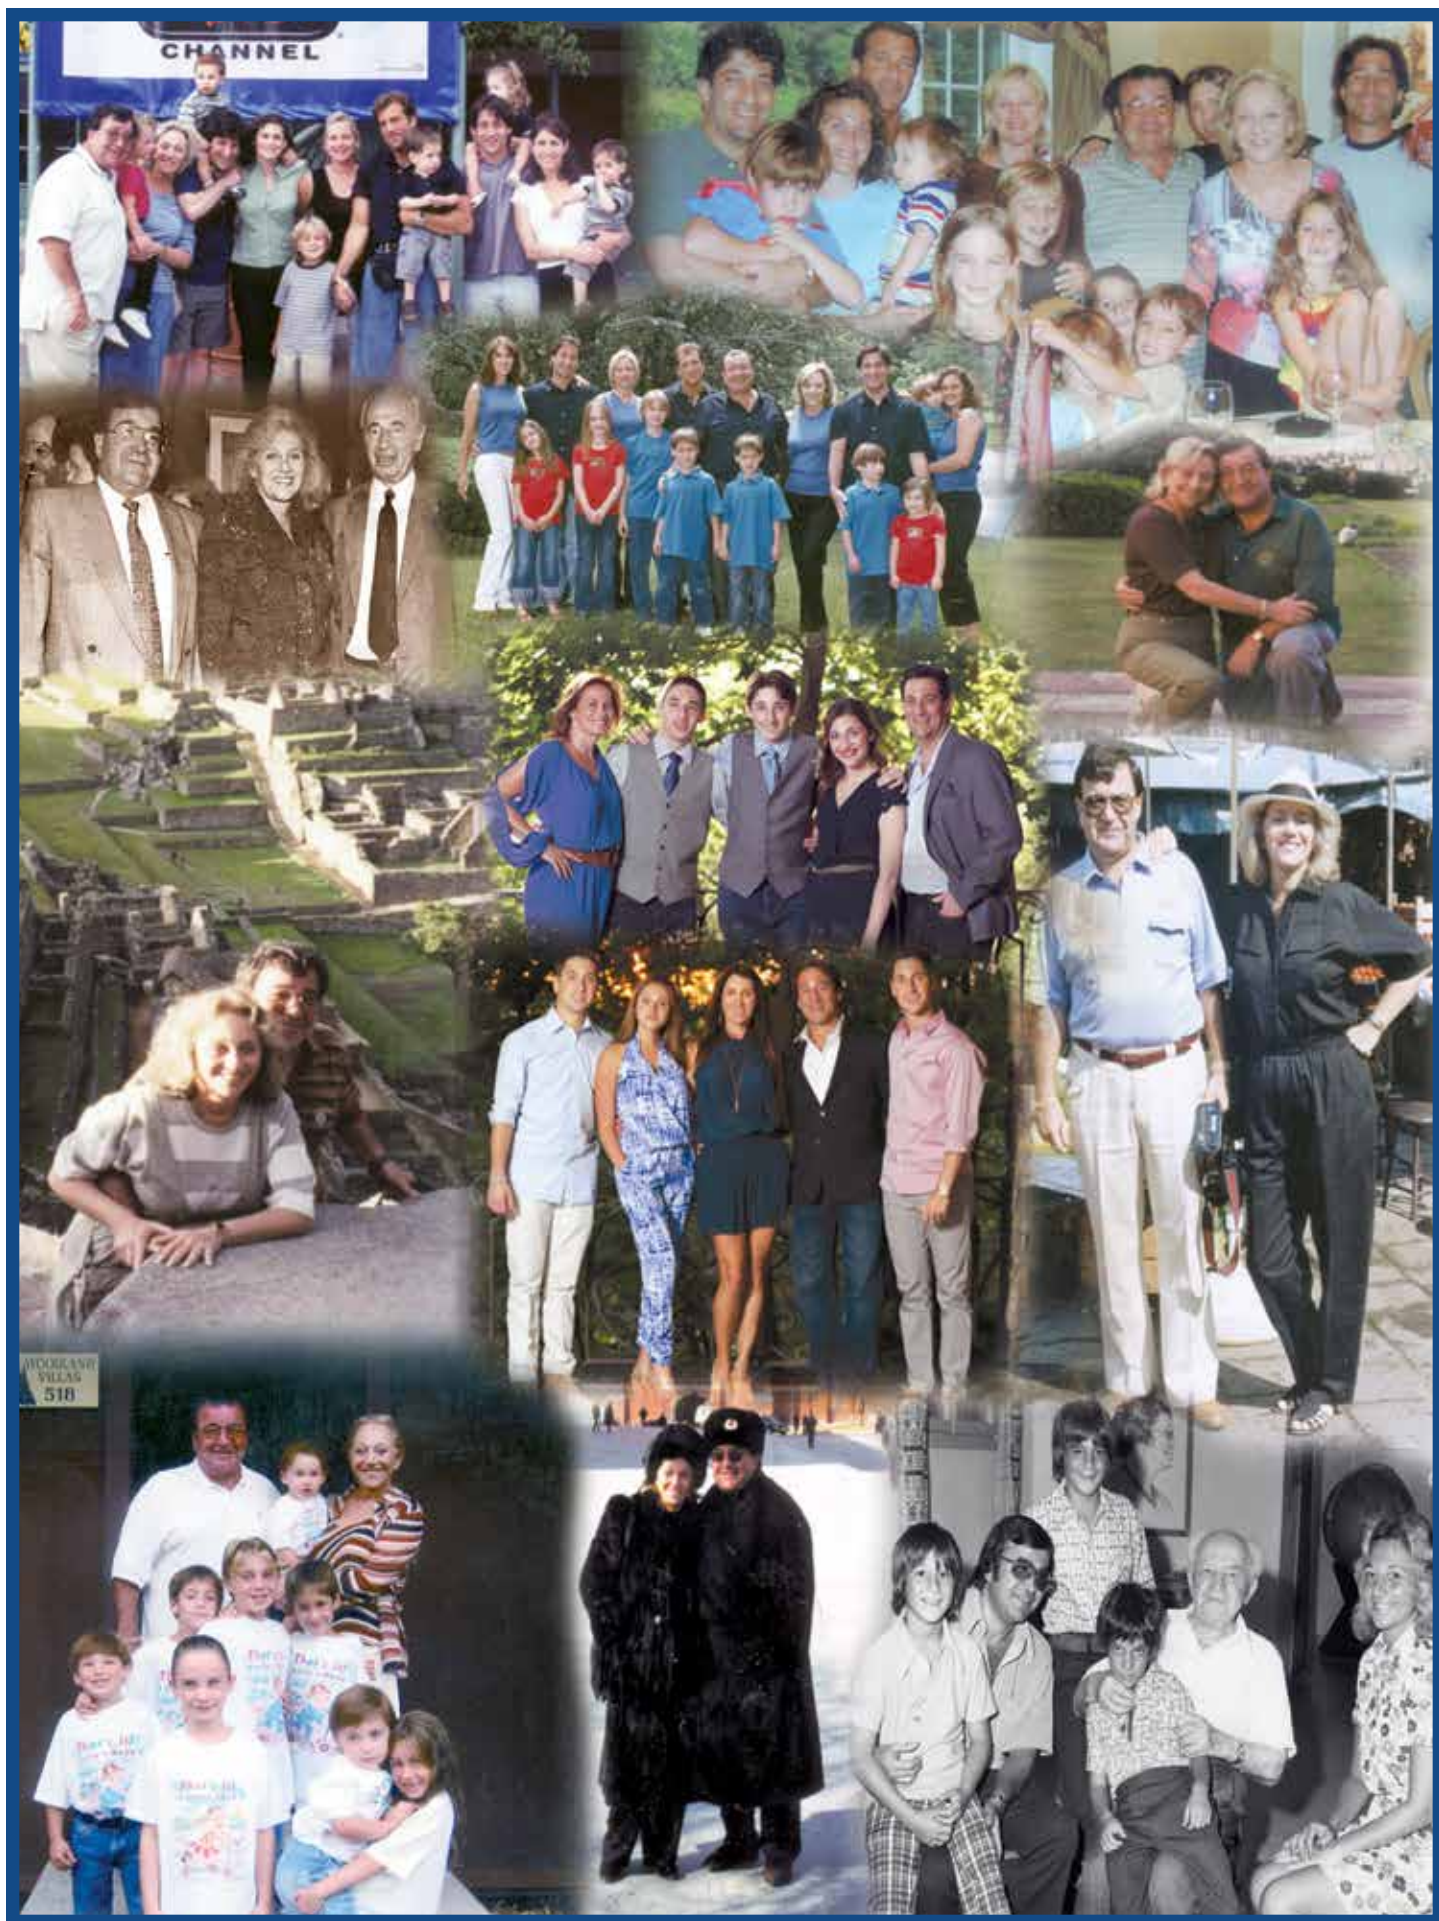

Arlene Kleinberg – is a strong believer in supporting the Jewish community and people in need through philanthropy and volunteer opportunities.

Arlene is currently the Campaign Chair of Westchester's UJA Federation and serves on UJA's Time for Good committee in New York City. She has been involved with UJA Federation in Westchester for 30 years, originally serving as an Area Chair for New Rochelle, Eastchester and Pelham and holding the Ambassador Chair. In addition, she has been a member of the Westchester Women's Cabinet and was a Fundraising Chair for the Women's Campaign. Arlene was also a Co-Chair of Tov B'Yachad in Westchester - UJA's initiative dedicated to strengthening the connection between UJA and the Orthodox community. Currently, she is a Board Member of the Westchester Jewish Council and the The Sharing Shelf. Arlene is a former Board Member of the JCC of Mid-Westchester, the Riverdale Y and served on the Executive Committee of her synagogue, the Young Israel of Scarsdale. When her children attended Westchester Day School, Arlene was a Class Parent, Co-Chair and Volunteer teacher with Learning to Look, an arts education program, as well as co-chairing the Yom Ha'Atzmaut Family Program. She currently reads to first graders at PS 75 in New York City and is involved with the iShine Program. She calls herself a "professional volunteer."

Arlene was born in Boston, Massachusetts and is a passionate Red Sox fan. Her family then moved to Ft. Worth, Texas when she was eleven years old. After graduating from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor's Degree in Drama, Arlene moved to New York City to pursue a career in acting. She studied acting at the Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute. She volunteered at the Manhattan Theatre Club and worked at the 92nd Street Y in their Nursery School and at the Y's Mosaic Theatre. Arlene and her husband Michael met through the Leadership Development Division of UJA Federation in New York City and continue to be involved.

Arlene and Michael live in New Rochelle and are the proud parents of Alyssa (and her husband Jason), Joshua and Arielle. Together they are strong supporters of UJA Federation, AIPAC, Israel Bonds, AJC, Westchester Day School and the American Friends of SHALVA.

Honoree
DANIEL SINGER
DAVID SINGER
SAUL SINGER

Saul and Fran Singer, along with their two sons, David and Daniel, have been devoted leaders of the Westchester community for decades. The Singer Family, with Saul as President, acquired Robison Oil in 1984. Today the business is still family run with David and Daniel as Co-Presidents.

Saul was one of the founders of the Westchester Jewish Council, served as its president and has held many other prominent leadership roles in the Jewish community, including: President of the Greenburgh Hebrew Center, Chairman of Israel Bonds in Westchester, member of the Board of Governors of UJA Federation, Vice President of the New York Conference for Soviet Jewry, member of the Boards of Ben Gurion University and of the Solomon Schechter School of Westchester (now the Leffell School).

The Singer tradition of leadership and communal responsibility has been passed on to David and Daniel.

David has served the community in many ways, including as a member of the Board of Directors of the Westchester Putnam Workforce Investment Board, UJA Business and Professionals Division, the Rosenthal Jewish Community Center of Northern Westchester, the White Plains Hospital Advisory Board, and of course the ten years he has been serving on the Board of the Boys & Girls Club. David currently sits on the advisory board of J-Teen and the Board of Directors for Feeding Westchester as well as chair of the Feeding Westchester HR committee.

Daniel is Past Chair of UJA-Federation's Westchester Business and Professional Division and a recent Past President of Congregation Sons of Israel in Briarcliff Manor. He served as Past chair of the American Jewish Committee's Energy Independence Committee, as well as its Westchester Board of Directors.

The Singer Family and Robison Oil together with their 8 grandchildren are very appreciative of this honor from the Westchester Jewish Council.

Entertainment

CORY KAHANNEY

Cory Kahanney is quite simply one of America's premiere stand up comedienne. While always in constant demand at comedy clubs coast to coast, Cory first caught fire after being a finalist in NBC's hit reality show "Last Comic Standing" which has led to appearances on NBC's "The Carson Daly Show", Comedy Central's "Tough Crowd with Colin Quinn" and her first solo special, "Comedy Central Presents... Cory Kahanney". Other television credits include numerous appearances on CBS's "The Late Late Show", hosting a week of NBC's "Later" as well as "The Martin Short Show", "The View", "Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher", CBS's "The Late Show with David Letterman", NBC's "America's Got Talent", TBS's "Conan" and an absolute kill on the CBS's "Late Show with Steven Colbert". Her off-Broadway hit "The J.A.P. Show" ran for six months in New York City and continues to tour the country under a new name, "The Princesses of Comedy", selling out theaters to rave reviews. Cory also performs regularly at Las Vegas and Atlantic City's best casinos including The Tropicana, Harrah's and Caesar's Palace.

Cory Kahanney was named Best Comedian in NYC by Backstage and Best Female Comedian NYC by the Manhattan Association of Cabarets. And even though she's had specials on Comedy Central and HBO, her parents still wish she had married a doctor!

ROCKMITZVAH

Rockmitzvah is the only entertainment entity in the New York metropolitan area, or perhaps the entire country, whose sole purpose is to integrate the bar/bat mitzvah child, their friends, and family, into the actual performance during their simcha. The child is a star for a day, and friends and family members participate musically in a unique event which simply complements the tradition and meaning of this momentous day in the life of a Jewish family. And because every family is different, and every child is unique, every Rockmitzvah is a custom fit. Rockmitzvah presents your Bar/Bat Mitzvah child as the Star of the Show! Your child will rock out with the band. Friends and relatives can sing or join the band using instruments that we provide. Every Rockmitzvah event is customized to provide your party with the perfect balance of musical entertainment. Rock, Pop, R&B and traditional Jewish music along with any other musical requests.

"My dad was a decorated World War II vet who fought so that we may live in peace. During his dying days, he deserved the greatest care and peace of all: Calvary Hospital"

"Escaping the horrors of Nazi Germany, my courageous father Joseph Gostin came to America, settled in Flushing Queens, and enlisted in the US Army. When he returned home, he lived the rest of his life with love, kindness, selflessness and gratitude. And more than life itself, he adored his family, including all 12 grandchildren. This was a man who genuinely understood the 'gift of life'. It was no surprise that his last wish was for a dignified death. The answer was Calvary Hospital. No other place in the world offers such visionary care, with non-abandonment as one of its primary tenants. Its expert Calvary staff provided my hero and our entire family a peaceful, stress-free environment that allowed dad and everyone else to be family again - enjoying to the fullest, each day until the last - with dignity, compassion and grace. Hand in hand, Calvary provides its world-renowned care every moment of every day. Thank you Calvary Hospital."

We are indebted to the Westchester Jewish Council for renaming the Leadership Development Institute in honor of our father and mentor, Samuel G. Fredman, who, as one of the founders of the organization, believed in developing emerging Jewish leaders throughout the community. As a former president and dedicated Board member, he thought there was no greater mission than to bring new and committed volunteers into the Council to create a forum for networking and change. We are all proud to be a part of his legacy.
