

Westchester Jewish Council's Celebration of Jewish Literacy

"The Best Passover and Seder Stories in American History - from the Revolution to Today"

Kickoff Event with Rabbi Meir Soloveitchik

Thursday, March 31, 2022 at 7:30pm

Young Israel of Scarsdale

1313 Weaver St, Scarsdale, NY

This program is free and open to all and will be available in person and via zoom.

Please click here to register.

Rabbi Dr. Meir Y. Soloveichik is one of America's leading voices on Jewish ideas, religious freedom, and faith in the modern age. After graduating from Yeshiva College, Rabbi Soloveichik obtained his Rabbinic ordination from the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary of Yeshiva University. He holds a Ph.D. from Princeton in Religion and currently serves as the Director of the Straus Center for Torah and Western Thought at Yeshiva University. Rabbi Soloveichik is the rabbi of Congregation Shearith Israel in Manhattan.

If you have any questions, please contact Pam Goldstein, pam@wjcouncil.org.

Covid-19 protocols will be observed.

